First Impressions Matter

Outgoing messages are often the first interaction a patient has with your dental practice when calling outside of office hours. An unprofessional or confusing message may leave patients frustrated or may deter them from seeking timely care.

Providing Essential Information

An outgoing message communicates critical details such as office hours, holiday closures, emergency contact procedures, and how to leave a message for future callbacks. This reduces patient anxiety and minimizes the number of questions staff need to handle during business hours.

Enhancing Patient Satisfaction and Loyalty
