The Kremlin School of Negotiation originates from Russia?s long-standing diplomatic practices, which have historically prioritized strategic patience, psychological resilience, and an understanding of geopolitical power plays. Its roots trace back to Soviet-era diplomatic training, where negotiation was seen as a tool for safeguarding national interests through subtlety and strategic planning.

Evolution into a Formalized Framework

Over the decades, these practices evolved into a formalized school of thought, integrating modern negotiation theories with traditional Russian diplomatic tactics. The school?s development has been influenced by key figures in Russian diplomacy, intelligence, and strategic studies, leading to a comprehensive approach that balances assertiveness with prudence.

International Adaptation and the English Edition
