The Crucible?s Themes: Explored in the Penguin Classics Edition

Arthur Miller?s play tackles a range of themes that remain relevant today. The Penguin Classics edition not only presents these themes through the vivid narrative but also encourages readers to re?ect on their contemporary signi?cance.

The Penguin Classics edition explores this theme by connecting Proctor?s struggle to broader human questions about conscience, honor, and redemption.

Power and Authority

The dynamics of power?who holds it, how it is exercised, and its potential for abuse?are pivotal in The Crucible.
